PLAINTIFF'S ORIGINAL COMPLAINT

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE OF THIS COURT:

NOW COMES, KIMBERLEY LINDSEY ("Plaintiff"), and files this, Original Complaint for Damages, complaining of AMERICAN AIRLINES, INC. ("Defendant" or "AA"), and alleges as follows:

I.
NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. This action is brought to remedy claims of employment discrimination on the basis of age and sex, pursuant to Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.
2. Plaintiff seeks actual and compensatory damages, punitive damages, and other appropriate legal and equitable relief.

II.
PARTIES

3. Plaintiff has at all times relevant to this lawsuit been a resident of Mansfield, Texas.
4. Defendant, AMERICAN AIRLINES, INC., is a foreign corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware, and is authorized to do business in Texas which has its principal place of business in Tarrant County, Texas. AA may be served with process by serving Corporation Service Company d/b/a CSC-Lawyers, at 211 E. 7th Street, Ste. 620, Austin, Texas 78701. Service is requested at this time.

III.
JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5. Plaintiff has been discriminated against because of her age and sex. Defendant's conduct is in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. The jurisdiction of this Court is invoked by Plaintiff pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over all other state claims as they are so related to claims in the action within such original jurisdiction that they form part of the same case or controversy pursuant to 28 USCS § 1367.

6. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. §1391 because the unlawful employment practice about which Plaintiff complains was committed in this district.

IV.
EXHAUSTION OF ADMINISTRATIVE REMEDIES

7. Plaintiff timely filed a charge of discrimination with the EEOC.

8. The EEOC has issued a Notice of Right to Sue Letter to Plaintiff, which is attached as Exhibit A.

9. Plaintiff files this Complaint within ninety (90) days after receipt of the Notice of Right to Sue Letter from the EEOC.

V.
FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

10. Plaintiff is a 60-year-old female and has been employed with AA since January 09, 2014. From July 1, 2017 to October 1, 2020, Plaintiff was a Senior Analyst/Analyst for AA. On November 11, 2019, Plaintiff filed an ethics violation, discrimination and hostile work environment reports on her Senior Manager, Jeffrey Painter ("Painter"), along with continued reports of Robert Aderman ("Aderman").

11. Plaintiff had previously reported Aderman, a younger male Analyst (level 3) on the Onboard Service Team, for creating a hostile work environment. Despite Plaintiff's reports, Aderman, who had only been employed by Defendant for four years, was promoted to a level 4 Senior Analyst. Even after reporting Aderman, he verbally attacked Plaintiff in a meeting again on November 19, 2019. He yelled and became highly aggressive and verbally abusive with his attacks over a period of 45 minutes.

12. Painter's employment with Defendant was terminated on January 6, 2020. On January 8, 2020, Plaintiff again reported to the Managing Director of Customer Delivery, Flight Service, Jennifer Proctor ("Proctor"), that Aderman and others within Plaintiff's department created a hostile work environment. On January 10, 2020, Proctor assigned Van Wentworth ("Wentworth") as the person to whom members of Plaintiff's team should report. During Plaintiff's first meeting with Van, Plaintiff reported the hostile atmosphere Aderman created. Wentworth advised Plaintiff that he had been tasked with resolving the issues and that Plaintiff should remain patient while he did so.

13. During a meeting with Wentworth and Aderman, Aderman verbally attacked and belittled Plaintiff, making comments regarding her abilities as an older woman. This created a very upsetting situation for Plaintiff. After that meeting, Plaintiff again expressed to Wentworth how hostile the work environment continued to be. She lodged additional complaints to management about Aderman continuing to create a hostile work environment. Wentworth again indicated to Plaintiff that Proctor had specifically tasked him with correcting the situation, to "please give me time," and to not report it to Human Resources.

14. In April of 2020, Kirstin Perkins ("Perkins") was appointed as the new manager to whom Plaintiff and Aderman reported. Plaintiff immediately informed Perkins of the continual harassment and hostile work environment Plaintiff had experienced with Aderman. A few days later, Perkins indicated to Plaintiff that Human Resources would contact Plaintiff about the incidents with Aderman.

15. Upon information and belief, Perkins was also verbally attacked by Aderman in April or May 2020. She reported it to Human Resources and was told by the Human Resources Business Partner, Mathew Diedrick, and Proctor to “coach him (Aderman) up,” and Perkins was instructed not to make an official report. Perkins was the only employee that actually tried to help Plaintiff.

16. On June 30, 2020, Plaintiff was released from her position as Senior Analyst (level 4) Onboard Service and Procedures. She was informed that she no longer had a position in Flight Service Management; however, Aderman, the very employee about whom Plaintiff complained, was retained, and even promoted. Plaintiff was presented with the following two options: (1) leave AA; or (2) accept a demotion to Flight Attendant and an approximately 49% reduction in pay. Plaintiff accepted the Flight Attendant position.

17. Plaintiff was replaced by two younger women, Kati Conti (“Conti”) and Carolina Londono (“Londono”), neither of whom had experience with the job functions for which Plaintiff had been responsible, which included onboard service procedures, policies, technical writing, manual editing, and working with Adobe Framemaker software, the software used to edit the OSM. In fact, London’s prior position was working on the uniform team in Flight Service, and Conti’s prior position included galley packing in Flight Service.

18. Accordingly, on July 1, 2020, Plaintiff filed a complaint with Human Resources alleging retaliation and discrimination because she believed she was demoted because of her prior hostile work environment reports. Since then, Plaintiff’s flight attendant position was furloughed without pay, and she lost her future vacation for 2021. Plaintiff believes AA knew Plaintiff would be furloughed, and that is why they demoted her to that position – to get rid of her.

19. There has been a systematic and pervasive discrimination against Plaintiff since. The disparate treatment by AA against Plaintiff is discriminatory and creates an adverse employment environment.

VI.
